

COACH FOR SUCCESS

Coach for Success (CFS) is Urban Initiatives' school-based program within our Workforce Development Network. Drawing on 20+ years of experience in sport- and play-based youth development, CFS fosters critical SEL skills in high schoolers, preparing them for the workforce with essential skills and supportive relationships.

THE BASICS

COST $4,000 ANNUALLY

- Two 10-session cohorts (Fall & Spring)
- Serves up to 20 9th & 10th graders
- Weekly SEL skills sessions 2 hrs, after school
- Quarterly off-site skill application & career exploration events
- Membership in UI's Workforce Network (including job opportunities, mentorship & peer connection, global experiences, etc.)

UI PROVIDES

- Evidence-based SEL curriculum
- Weekly facilitation of SEL sessions
- Fun, games, & snacks for every session
- Workforce Network activities (social events, mentorship supports, etc.)
- Transportation for 4 off-site events
- Accessible & responsive Program Managers

SCHOOL PROVIDES

- Space for weekly after school SEL skill-building sessions
- Accessible point person of contact (liaison) for UI staff
- Collaborative student recruitment effort to maximize participation
- Staff chaperones for off-site events (4x/year)

WANT MORE INFO?

partnerships@urbaninitiatives.org

"Coach for Success really improved my confidence and networking skills".

~ Student